

68 68 is about making wine accessible to everyone.

There are no white gloves, hot tongs,
crystal decanters or pretentious sommeliers.

Instead our panel of expert wine-buyers have tried 1,000s of bottles to select a list of fantastic bottles with something for everyone. Every wine we sell (except magnums and a few Champagnes) is available by the glass and to taste so please get stuck in!

Explore our DISCOVERY range of impressive wines from less well-known regions or varieties, priced from £20, or try some favourites and classic styles from £30 in our RESERVE section.

DISCOVERY WHITES

 £20 / BOTTLE

 £6.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Lela del Mar Blanco Airen

 Valencia, Spain

Sourced from vineyards around Valencia and Murcia this blend of Airen and Macabeo has more fruit than Carmen Miranda's Tutti Frutti hat.

Forge Mill Chenin Blanc

 Western Cape, South Africa

Chenin, South Africa's signature grape and an absolute archetypal interpretation here that exemplifies just why it has become THE Cape classic.

Ai Galera, 'Mistico' Ferno Pires Verdelho

 Tejo, Portugal

Portugal was a best kept secret. But not anymore. Stonking wines, almost always built around indigenous varieties. And we love this little beauty.

Campo Flores Blanco Organic Verdejo

 La Mancha, Spain

Crisp, aromatic and oh so moreish, be warned one bottle often leads to a second, or third!

Les Chiens Catalans Rousanne - Grenache Blanc

 Languedoc, France

Why Chiens Catalan? Well because it really is 'the dogs'. North of the border this French puppy is based around the little known (and therefore great value) Rousanne varietal and honeysuckle and peaches being the default flavour profile.

 £25 / BOTTLE

 £7.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Darling Cellars Sauvignon Blanc

 Darling Cellars, South Africa

Aromas of tropical fruit such as watermelon skin, passion fruit and pineapple spring from the glass.

Fabrizio Vella Bianco Organico Natural Catarratto

 Sicily, Italy

Minimum Winemaker intervention, virtually natural and 100% organic Fabrizio Vella makes wines he hopes you will adore as much as he does. Well we certainly do! A stunning addition to the list at 68.

Mont Rocher Old Vine Viognier

 Languedoc, France

A haunting honeysuckle and apricot aroma and rich, almost unctuous palate that is somehow still dry, tangy and refreshing.

Te Quiero 'Field Blend'

 Castilla, Spain

A truthfully unknown blend of all sorts from traditional vineyards on the Spanish plain. A hint of Moscatel added by, err, Battersea boy and winemaker Paul Shinnie the final blend is just gorgeous. As the name suggests, you will love it.

Zaccagnini Verdicchio di Castelli di Jesi Classico

 Marche, Italy

Delicate and elegant, with notes of yeast and fresh bread. Fresh, dry, savoury with a lingering finish and perfectly balanced acidity.

Wines are served in 175 ml unless otherwise stated. 125 ml are available. Note that a discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your bill. Please note that vintages are subject to change! With over 50 wines on our list, we can expect one to change at least every week.

RESERVE WHITES

 £30 / BOTTLE

 £8.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Uvam Pinot Grigio, delle Venezie

 Italy

Pinot Grigio at entirely different level. Nothing short of ambrosial on the nose and we don't mean rice pudding. An abundance of melon, guava and peach supported by zippy acidity making it mouth-tinglingly moreish. You have been warned!

Adi Badenhorst 'The Curator' Chenin - Chardonnay

 Viogner, Swartland

Adi Badenhorst might be nuts, or perhaps just a genius. Either way he does it his way. And his Curator White Blend makes a welcome return to our list.

Adega Ponte De Lima Loureiro - Trajadura - Arinto Vinho Verde

 Lima, Portugal

A slight spritz on the tongue there is simply nothing better on a hot steamy Soho evening. Crisp, bright and flavours of green apple abound. A fabulous way to start the evening.

Famile Morin Picpoul de Pinet

 Languedoc, France

Light, fresh, a touch of sea air from the nearby Med, Caroline was created with food pairing in mind, but we think it's great anytime!

Kalfu 'Molu' Chardonnay

 Colchagua, Chile

History tells us that the mapuche saw the stars in the sky over the Pacific Ocean and as the earth was rotating, they would hide in the sea and become starfish. Cool climate coastal Chile can and does produce exceptional wines that offer fantastic value for money.

 £35 / BOTTLE

 £9.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Wyebrook Estate Vineyard 'Row 1' Sauvignon

 Marlborough, New Zealand

Classically Kiwi with a nod to the old world too. The sort of elegance you see in Sancerre balanced with the fruit only Marlborough can deliver. 'Row 1' makes it more than aptly named.

Koch Csaba Csereszegi Fűszeres

 Hajós-Bajai, Hungary

Kock Csaba is a winemaker who demands your attention. This entirely unpronounceable native Hungarian variety is floral, aromatic and multi-layered. An absolutely stunning find.

La Guardiense Falanghina

 Campania, Italy

You've never heard of it, but this has serious wow factor. The sort of wine that 68 is all about. Our favourite new addition to the list.

Aquarius Marsanne Viogner

 Victoria, Australia

When the moon is in the Seventh House and Jupiter aligns with Mars. Then peace will guide the planets and love will steer the stars. This is the dawning of the age of Aquarius.

Wines are served in 175 ml unless otherwise stated. 125 ml are available. Note that a discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your bill. Please note that vintages are subject to change! With over 50 wines on our list, we can expect one to change at least every week.

Some stupendous rare and fine wines for special occasions or just for every day drinking.

White Wine

Charles & Charles Single Vineyard £13/£45

Yakima Valley Riesling, Washington State, USA

Rich, textural, slightly off dry. Cool climate Riesling, late harvested to retain natural sugars and intensity.

Domaine Pierre Marchand Pouilly Fumé, Loire Valley, France £13/£45

100% Sauvignon Blanc. And Sauvignon Blanc doesn't get more serious than this.

Complex, concentrated with crisp gooseberry and blackcurrant leaf fruit overlaid with hints of citrus and mineral.

Zephyr Estate Gewurztraminer, Marlborough, New Zealand £13/£45

Ben Glover is a bit of a celeb winemaker in NZ. And whilst Sauvignon probably pays his mortgage he really excels when left to play around with whacky varieties and as exemplified by this fabulous Gewurztraminer. Anybody for Turkish Delight?

Domaine Grossot Chablis, Burgundy, France £14/£50

Eve Grossot works to entirely organic methods and just as her parents did. And the result of which is this stunning archetypal Chablis. For when only the very best will do.

DISCOVERY REDS

 £20 / BOTTLE

 £6.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Palazzo del Mare Nero d'Avola

 Sicily, Italy

Jammy and juicy in a really good way. Nero d'Avola excels as a grape on Sicily and in a glass in Greek Street.

Torre Solar Tempranillo Petit Verdot

 La Mancha, Spain

Named after a solar power installation (how terribly modern). Succulent, juicy, bursting with ripe blackberry, a hint of spice.

Darling 'SMG' Shiraz – Mourvedre – Grenache

 Darling, South Africa

The cool weather in Darling affords the perfect climate for this Chateauneuf-du-Pape blend at a fabulous price, our favourite red.

Ca del Lago Cabernet Sauvignon

 Sicily, Italy

Not quite like volcanic lava but you may be dribbling down your chin after a glass or two of this Sicilian Cabernet.

Viva La Roja! Monastrell

 Yecla, Spain

Go The Reds! Proudly put together for the last Spanish World Cup bid this big boy epitomises the bold flavours of the deep south of Spain. Rich, full and oozing sunshine.

 £25 / BOTTLE

 £7.5 / GLASS (175ml)

Terre Allegre Sangiovese

 Puglia, Italy

A juicy, succulent ruby red wine with savoury cherry and plum jam characters. Soft tannins and a bright ripe fruited finish. For when juicy is just fine.

Finca Manzanos Rioja Tempranillo

 Rioja, Spain

Just how a good Rioja should be. It's a 'ronseal red' and does just what it says on the label.

Miopasso Primitivo

 Puglia, Italy

From the scorched earth vineyards of Italy's stiletto heel. My word, it's hot down there and wines can be full and with punchy alcohol. But this beauty belies most of that. Rich and textured yes, but eminently drinkable, beautifully crafted.

Rumbustious Giant Old Vine Red Blend

 California, USA

Sadly, so much Californian wine is lost in a sea of mediocrity. So when we find a wine like this, well we have to list. It. An ever-changing blend that's as big as the name would suggest but a funky glass on its own and outstanding as bottle with meats and cheeses.

Calusari Pinot Noir

 Viile Timisului, Romania

Named after a secret Romanian fraternal sect whose dance is said to look like they are flying through the air. And we think you'll be walking on air when you try this. Really eye-catching in our tastings. We love it.

Wines are served in 175 ml unless otherwise stated. 125 ml are available. Note that a discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your bill. Please note that vintages are subject to change! With over 50 wines on our list, we can expect one to change at least every week.

RESERVE REDS

 £30 / BOTTLE

 £8.5 / GLASS (175ml)

 £35 / BOTTLE

 £9 / GLASS (175ml)

Felicette 'Cats In Space Suits' Grenache Rouge

 Languedoc, France

Felicette was France's first astronaut and the first cat to survive space flight... This wine boldly goes where no wines have gone before. A unique blend, 90% Grenache a 5% splash each of Syrah and Malbec.

Belhara Estate 'Amayan' Malbec

 Tupungato, Argentina

High altitude vineyards in arguably the world's most remote wine regions bring a clarity & purity of fruit rarely seen. Great value, this Malbec is seriously punching above its weight.

Baglio Gibellina Frappato

 Sicily, Italy

We know you've never heard of Frappato. Nor had we until recently. Only ever a success in its native Sicily it's vibrant and fruity and outstanding with our charcuterie boards...

Neropasso Originale Rosso

 Veneto, Italy

Produced like a baby Amarone from Corvinone, Corvina and Cabernet grapes left to dry before pressing and resulting in the most intense flavours. Serious wine, not for the faint hearted.

Girl With A Pearl Earring Merlot

 Vallee Central, Chile

Chile has been the 'go to' place for Merlot for a decade or more. Though in truth the wine often ordinary at best. This is a game changer. Elegant, demure and perhaps misunderstood, much like the Girl herself.

Three Thieves Pinot Noir

 California, USA

We've not seen Californian Pinot Noir at this price, well not in this millennium. A slow ferment and a touch of French and American oak along with a splash of Syrah and Petit Syrah all combine to produce a luxurious Californian red.

El Primero de Camino de Santiago Graciano Garnacha

 Navarra, Spain

If you take the southern route along The Camino then El Primero is arguably the first winery you will pass. So stop. This Graciano based blend is just bursting with Parma Violets and provides refreshment for the most weary of travellers.

Glenelly Estate 'Glass Collection' Cabernet Franc

 Stellenbosch, South Africa

As a young girl during the war May de Lencquesaing hid wine from the Germans at the family Chateau, Pichon Longueville. And now, aged 94 she is the proud custodian of Glenelly Estate which she founded in her youth, well at the age of 78. This Cab Franc is like nothing else and testament to her inspired vineyard selection, putting the best vines in perfect locations.

Scotto Family Vineyards Old Vine Zinfandel

 Lodi, California

Smoky, spicy, great mouthfeel, length that lasts forever.

Wines are served in 175 ml unless otherwise stated. 125 ml are available. Note that a discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your bill. Please note that vintages are subject to change! With over 50 wines on our list, we can expect one to change at least every week.

Some stupendous rare and fine wines for special occasions or just for every day drinking.

Red Wine

Viña Mayor Tinto Roble Ribera del Duero, Castilla y Leon, Spain £13/£45

Made by Almu Alberca Spain's first EVER female Master of Wine. Of great depth and richly textured to be contemplated and then savoured.

Coriole Sangiovese, McLaren Vale, Australia £13/£45

Never mind Shiraz, McLaren Vale is ideally suited to classical Italian grape varieties. Who knew? So what better than this deliciously elegant Sangiovese. The beguiling nose is loaded with aromas of earthy, forest floor, mace, anise, cassia bark and juniper berry. And then you get to taste it...

Cartlidge & Brown North Coast Cabernet Sauvignon, Rioja, Spain £13/£45

Tony Cartlidge sat in the cab of a cement mixer on a nuclear power plant construction site reading a book on great California winemakers. He thought: "I fancy that" and this is the fruits of his labour. Wow!

Domaine Parent Bourgogne Pinot Noir, Burgundy, France £15/£50

The Parent family have, for over 250 years tended their vines and made exquisite and classical Burgundy wines from their base in Pommard. Now 12th generation sisters Anne and Catherine Parent maintain an 'unspoilt by progress' philosophy and we are delighted that the 'Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves'

ROSÉ

175ml/bottle

La Vie en Rose Cinsault Rosé, Languedoc, France £7.5/£25

An homage to that other Edith Piaf classic, pale pink in colour, cherry, raspberry, subtle spice - drink up and 'regrette rien'!

Finca Manzanos Rioja Rosado, Rioja, Spain £8.5/£30

Two parts Gamacha to one part Tempranillo this is proper Rosé from Rioja. Crisp, bright and delicately refreshing.

Domaine La Grande Bauquière "B" Côtés de Provence Rosé, Provence, France £9.5/£35

If you lined up the best 100 rosés in the world, well everyone knows that they would all come from this part of France. So we thought we had better list one!

MAGNUMS

1.5l bottle

Big Groups need Big Bottles! They're more fun and experts generally think the wine tastes better as it has less contact with oxygen during its journey to your table. We'll leave it for you to decide. Staying true to our mission we've sourced what we think are the best value magnums around. Only available by the bottle.

Finca Decero Malbec 2014, Mendoza, Argentina £80

Intense violet aromas over a core of red fruits with notes of cherries and raspberries. Supple and elegant tannins from 14 months in French oak.

Conde Valdemar Rioja Reserva 2009, Rioja, Spain £90

Intense aromas of ripe fruit well integrated with attractive spicy nuances from the oak. Fleshy and full of flavour, with excellent balance and a long finish.

Château La Croix de Grézard 2012, Lussac-Saint-Emilion, France £100

Chunky plum, black fruits and notes of cedar. A tiny producer with just 9 acres making beautiful elegant red wines.

CHAMPAGNE

125ml/bottle

Champagne Pierre Mignon Grande Réserve Premier Cru, Le Breuil, France £12/£60

In the same family for generations, preferring to produce their own artisan wines rather than sell to the big names this is luxury personified at an accessible price. Producers like this make the search worthwhile. 100% Premier Cru vineyard fruit only, and there are not many that can say that!

Champagne Pierre Mignon Brut Rosé, Le Breuil, France £15/£75

A blend of 70% Pinot Meunier, 15% Pinot Noir and 15% Chardonnay. Delicate aromas make way for a complexity and intensity that quite simply overdelivers.

Perrier Jouet Grand Brut, Épernay, France £80

One of the all-time classic houses produces an exceptional grand marque. Green fruit, brioche-toastiness and underlying flavours of almond and peach unite into a truly superb Champagne.

Ruinart Blanc des Blancs NV, Reims, France £110

Light, crisp and elegant 100% Chardonnay Champagne, one of the world's great sparkling wines.

Krug Grande Cuvée NV, Reims, France £275

For those of you who like their champagne big and bold, a nose of brioche, toasted nuts and dried fruits on a complex palate.

SPARKLING

125ml/bottle

Terre di Giulio Black Label Prosecco Spumante Brut, Veneto, Italy £7/£30

100% Glera grape as all Prosecco must be. Fizzy, fresh and fun and everything your Prosecco ought to be.

Wines are served in 175 ml unless otherwise stated. 125 ml are available. Note that a discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your bill. Please note that vintages are subject to change! With over 50 wines on our list, we can expect one to change at least every week.

BEERS

330ml bottle

Birra Moretti, Udine, Italy £5.5

A pale gold lager with a floral, bready, malty nose. Refreshing wheat and malt flavours with subtle honey at the finish.

Lagunitas IPA, California, USA £6

Punchy American style IPA. Aromas of hop and grapefruit. Sweet malt flavours and a medium-bitter hoppiness with citrus notes.

Camden Pale Ale, Camden, England £5.5

Combines the easy-drinking tradition of British beer with the bold, hoppy flavours of American pale ales. The result is a refreshing beer with a twist of tropical fruitiness & moreish.
